

Australian
Centre to Counter
Child Exploitation

AFP
AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL POLICE

Support for individuals involved in child sexual exploitation

The following services can provide you with information, advice, support and counselling during this time.

accce.gov.au

If you have had inappropriate feelings towards children, consult your General Practitioner for more information or to ask for a referral to speak with a professional trained in adult sexual behaviours.

If life is in danger, call 000

Lifeline provides a telephone and online service for anyone who is experiencing a personal crisis, contemplating suicide or caring for someone in crisis.

 13 11 14 (Operates 24/7)

 lifeline.org.au

Beyond Blue provides a confidential phone or online service offering support and counselling by trained mental health professionals.

 1300 22 4636 (Operates 24/7)

 beyondblue.org.au/getsupport

MensLine Australia provides a national telephone and online support, information and referral service for men with family and relationship concerns.

 1300 789 978 (Operates 24/7)

 mensline.org.au

SANE AUSTRALIA

SANE Australia provides phone and online counselling, support, information and referrals to adults concerned about complex mental health issues.

 1800 18 7263 (Operates 10am-10pm, M-F) sane.org

Suicide Call Back Service provides telephone and online counselling for anyone that is affected by or contemplating suicide.

 1300 659 467 (Operates 24/7)

 suicidecallbackservice.org.au

Australian Psychological Society is a service directory that lists registered psychologists across Australia.

 psychology.org.au/Find-a-Psychologist

Please note, neither the Australian Federal Police nor the Australian Centre to Counter Child Exploitation recommends or endorses any of the listed services. This information is provided should you feel you require assistance or support.