

Support for families

Should you feel that you and your family require support during this time, the following services can provide you with practical, non-judgmental information, advice, confidential peer support and counselling.

AFP

Australian
Centre to Counter
Child Exploitation

Support for families

Child Wise offers information, support, counselling and advice from trained counsellors to help people deal with concerns relating to child sexual abuse and exploitation.

If you have experienced child abuse in an institutional context you can contact the Child Wise Helpline.

Call 1800 99 10 99 (9am–5pm M–S)
Visit childwise.org.au

The Salvation Army assists families experiencing a sudden crisis in need of financial assistance (food, travel, water, phone, rates, clothing, etc).

Call 1300 371 288 (9am–5pm AEST M–F)
Visit salvationarmy.org.au

Lifeline provides a telephone and online service for anyone who is experiencing a personal crisis, contemplating suicide or caring for someone in crisis.

Call 13 11 14 (Operates 24/7)
Visit lifeline.org.au

1800Respect. Dial for sexual assault, domestic and family violence counselling, information and referrals.

Call 1800 737 732 (Operates 24/7)
Visit 1800respect.org.au

Beyond Blue provides a confidential phone or online service offering support and counselling by trained mental health professionals.

Call 1300 22 4636 (Operates 24/7)
Visit beyondblue.org.au/getsupport

Blue Knot Helpline and Redress Support Service provides specialist trauma counselling, support, information and referrals to adults who have experienced childhood trauma.

Call 1300 657 380 (9am–5pm AEST M–S)
Visit blueknot.org.au/helpline

Support for children and young people

Kids Helpline offers a free, confidential telephone and online counselling service for young people aged 5–25 years.

Call 1800 55 1800 (Operates 24/7)
Visit kidshelpline.com.au

Bravehearts offers a free telephone service providing information, counselling and support to those affected by child sexual abuse.

Call 1800 272 831 (8:30am–4:30pm AEST M–F)
Visit bravehearts.org.au

Australian Childhood Foundation provides support to children and families affected by abuse, family violence and neglect and offers counselling, therapeutic care, research activities and parenting education.

Call 1300 381 581
Visit childhood.org.au

headspace provides free, confidential telephone or online mental health support to 12–25 year olds or their families. Visit the website to find a headspace centre in your territory.

Call 1800 650 890
Visit headspace.org.au

Reachout is an online service that provides information, support and resources about mental health issues for young people and their parents.

Visit au.reachout.com

Learn more

If you are concerned about your child's mental health or behaviour, speak to your GP. Your GP can provide you with an appropriate counselling referral or further information on any of the above services and more.

Support in your state

Mental Health Triage Service

Is the main point of access for mental health services in SA and is staffed by mental health clinicians who can assess and refer you to appropriate services.

Call 13 14 65 (Operates 24/7)

Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (CAMHS)

Is a free community-based mental health service provided through SA Health's Women's and Children's Health Network. They provide mental health services to infants, children, adolescents and perinatal women.

Call 1300 222 647
Visit wch.sa.gov.au

Department for Child Protection, South Australia

Provides a range of services which provide additional support, health services and counselling to families, and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

Call (08) 8124 4185
Child Abuse Report Line 13 14 78
Visit childprotection.sa.gov.au

Relationships Australia, South Australia

Provides services supporting children and young people, adults, couples and families.

Call 1300 364 277
Visit rasa.org.au

Parent Helpline SA

Is a telephone information service that provides information to parents of children aged 0–12 years on health, behaviour and relationships.

Call 1300 364 100 (Operates 24/7)

Please consult your General Practitioner (GP) for further information and to ask for referrals if required.

If life is in danger or a person is highly distressed, feeling unsafe and you think they are a risk to themselves, dial 000 for immediate assistance.

accce.gov.au

Please note, neither the Australian Federal Police nor the Australian Centre to Counter Child Exploitation recommends or endorses any of the listed services. This information is provided should you feel you require assistance or support.